Monmouthshire Housing Association Tenant Scoops Top Welsh Award.

Judith Langmead from Abergavenny, who is the Tenant Chair of Monmouthshire Housing Association's Board has won the top Welsh award for her efforts in Tenant Participation beating off the competition of nine other individuals from Housing Associations and Local Authorities all over Wales.

Judith attended, the annual Welsh Tenant Participation Awards Ceremony in Llandudno hosted by TPAS Cymru on Friday 1st May and walked away with the prestigious "Ruth Radley" Outstanding Achievement in Participation Award for her efforts in tenant participation over the last ten years.

Judith's outstanding achievement has followed years of voluntary work, where she has advocated on behalf of Monmouthshire tenants firstly with Monmouthshire County Council and latterly with Monmouthshire Housing Association since the transfer of homes in January 2008.

Judith was Chair of Monmouthshire Housing's Tenants Forum for seven years before standing down after being selected by tenants to sit on the Board of Monmouthshire Housing's Board

After winning the Award Judith said, "I am very grateful to my fellow tenants from Monmouthshire Housing's Tenant Forum who nominated me and also the staff and my fellow Board Members at Monmouthshire Housing Association whose support has been invaluable."
