What to expect

This guide explains the services you can expect to receive from Monmouthshire Housing Association.

It describes the range of services offered, the standards of service you can expect, and how we will check we are meeting these standards.

There are a number of standards, in each section of this guide. If you feel we are not meeting any of these standards then please tell us.

We may ask for your help when checking and monitoring our standards. For example, by asking you to take part in short satisfactions surveys.

We promise to keep the number of surveys to a reasonable level, and will only ask relevant questions to help us improve our services. You may also wish to become involved in discussing service improvements within a group environment (please ask for more information about how you can get involved).

The guide is also available on our website or you can contact MHA to receive a copy.
