Introduction

If this is the first time that you have experienced a problem with your neighbour, it may be best to do nothing initially. It may be a one-off such as the celebration of a special occasion and may not be a recurring issue. Jumping in to complain too quickly may make matters worse between you and your neighbour.

Try talking

Your neighbour might not realise that they are causing you a problem. If possible, try talking to your neighbour first. This is best done quietly and calmly - maybe over a cup of tea.

Do

- Talk face to face
- Think about what you want to say beforehand
- Talk to the person when they are on their own and have time
- Be calm and rational - swearing doesn't help!
- Be polite, but firm
- Listen to their reply and think about what they have said

Don't

- Approach the neighbour when you are angry or upset, wait until you calm down
- Lose your temper or be aggressive

- Use aggressive body language such as pointing, finger wagging, gesturing, staring, etc.
- Let matters build up. Don't let things get out of hand before you discuss the matters or make a complaint

Reporting ASB

You can report problems with ASB to Monmouthshire Housing Association by calling our Head Office at Mamhilad on 0345 677 2277.

Alternatively, you can report this directly to a member of MHA staff in person log your report via the MHA website www.monmouthshirehousing.co.uk

ASB can also be reported to Heddlu Gwent Police via the police non emergency number 101.

However, if you are concerned for your personal safety or someone else's, or if the matter is a real emergency, ring Heddlu Gwent Police by dialling 999.

- Our neighbourhood officer will explain what action the association can and cannot take as well as advising you which other agencies may be able to help. If the nuisance involves criminal activity, it is also very important that you report it to the Police.
- You should keep a diary of every incident that occurs, including time and date, a record of what occurred, and details of any witnesses. Our neighbourhood officer can provide you with prepared sheets designed for this purpose.

The Welsh Government provides further advice about managing ASB on their website: <http://wales.gov.uk>

Victim Support

'Victim Support' is a national charity which gives free and confidential help to victims of crime, witnesses, their family, friends and anyone else affected. They are not a government agency or part of the police and you don't have to report a crime to the police to get their help. You can call any time after the crime has happened, whether it was yesterday, last week or several years ago.
